

Landscape Change Program Projects

Staff and Faculty Projects

- Learning Landscapes (on-line river and hillslope landscape tutorials)
- Landscape History Course (on-line, not accessible by the public)
- K-12 Curriculum Development (on-line)
- Civil War Images Collection (Howard Coffin)
- 1927 Flood Images Collection
- Interstate Highways Images Collection
- Image Collections in PowerPoint (Floods, Mining, Natural History of Trees)
- Topical scrapbooks using imagery

Student Projects

- Dating Photos Tutorial (Elizabeth Andre, Historic Preservation Graduate student)
- Reprogramming the Archive Search/Display Engine (Ben Fenster, Computer Science Graduate student, and Wesley Wright, programmer)
- Shelburne History (Eric Butler, Geology Graduate Student)
- Oakledge History (Eric Butler, Geology Graduate Student)
- Winooski Valley Interstate Highway Construction (Will Hackett, Geology MS Thesis Project)
- Hillslope Erosion Study (Michala Peabody, Geology Undergraduate)
- Riparian Coverage Study (Jehana Howe, Natural Resources Undergraduate)
- River Change over Time Study (Elizabeth Stanley-Mann, Geology Undergraduate)
- Scrapbooks (slide sets compiled by students in on-line class)
- Digitizing the 1927 flood newsreel (Geology undergraduate)
- Oakledge Park Interpretive Signboards (Governor's Institutes of Vermont, High School students)

Other users of Landscape Change Archive

- Vermont State Department of Environmental Protection
- Vermont State Department of Historical Preservation
- Vermont State Archeologist
- Book authors
- Town Historical Societies
- Lake Champlain Basin Program (interpretive signboards)